UNM Facts

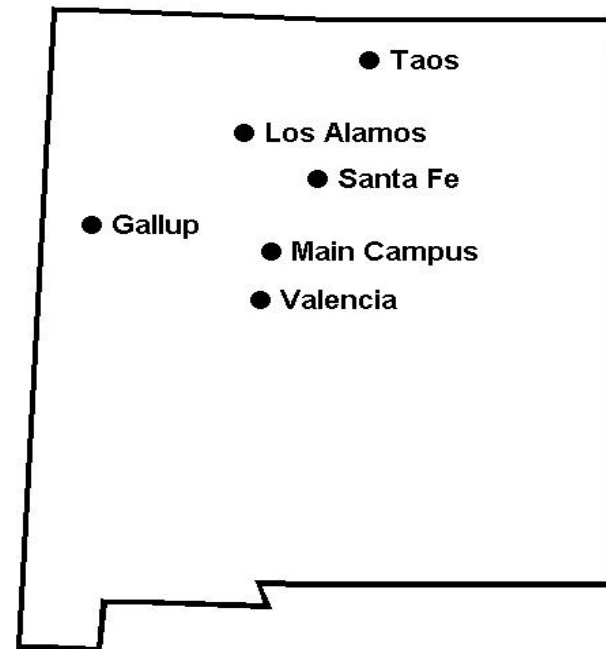

2000-2001

Introduction

In fall 2000, the campuses of the University of New Mexico served 29,952 students, employed 2,901 faculty and 11,256 staff, and had a total operating and capital budget of about $1.1 billion. In the previous academic year, UNM awarded 4,528 degrees and certificates.

This fact book presents data for all UNM campuses. UNM consists of a Main Campus located in Albuquerque, which includes the Health Sciences Center; three branch campuses which have a two-year degree mission: UNM-Gallup, UNM-Los Alamos, and UNM-Valencia; an Education Center which functions very much like a branch campus: UNM-Taos; and an Extended University which delivers courses, both on-site and via technology, throughout the state. The Upper Division & Graduate Centers at Los Alamos and Santa Fe are incorporated into the Extended University in this year's report. The UNM Health Sciences Center and its programs—which include the School of Medicine, College of Nursing, and College of Pharmacy—are included in the UNM Fact Book, sometimes as part of the Main Campus and sometimes separately. Footnotes and labels should make it clear in each case what is included.

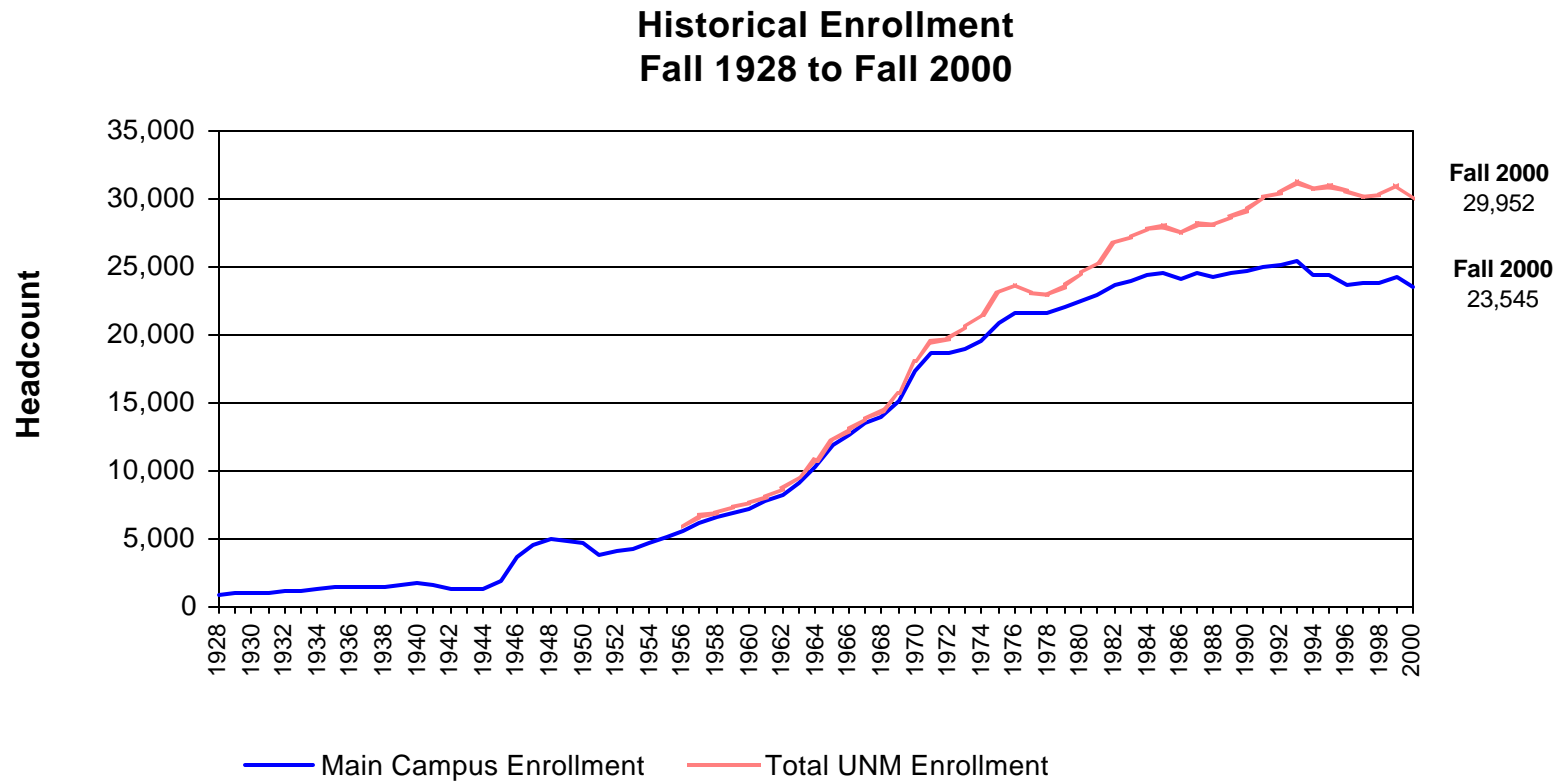

UNM's Extended University also includes the Division of Continuing Education, which has over 55,000 enrollments every year in both credit and non-credit courses.

Degree Programs, Degrees
Awarded & Alumni

Degree Programs¹ (Main Campus)

UNM's Main Campus offers over 200 degree programs. There are 92 baccalaureate, 65 masters, and 36 doctoral level degree programs. Many of the degree programs have additional concentrations and options; for example, the Bachelors in Business Administration degree has a number of concentrations. (See the UNM catalog for information on degree concentrations.) In addition, there are 3 graduate certificate programs; 2 associate degree programs; 5 education specialist degrees (graduate programs beyond the masters level); and 3 first-professional degree programs in law, medicine, and pharmacy.

The University offers an Evening and Weekend Degree Program (EWDP) in which at least 19 complete degree programs are available, and core courses are offered in at least 36 additional degree programs. Over 850 classes are offered each semester after 4:00 p.m. or on weekends, with a total (duplicated) enrollment of about 16,000. The following list of degree programs are marked with an * if the entire program is available in the EWDP and with a + if several core courses in a program are offered through EWDP.

- ¹ Previous Factbook editions reported Degree Programs and Majors, while this edition reports only Degree Programs, and only programs that are accepting new students. Therefore, the total number of degrees by level are lower here than in previous editions.
- ² Anderson Schools of Management offers a BBA, an MBA, and a Post-MBA Certificate in several degree concentrations. See the current UNM catalog or ASM's web page for details on these degree concentrations.
- ³ A BAED is also offered through the College of Education.
- ⁴ A bachelors in Music Education is offered by the College of Education and by the College of Fine Arts.
- ⁵ A PhD in Optical Science is offered by the College of Arts and Sciences Physics Department and by the School of Engineering Electrical and Computing Engineering Department.
- ⁶ The College of Education offers both an EdD and a PhD in some doctoral programs, only a PhD in some, and only an EdD in others. Check the catalog for details.

UNM Main Campus libraries include the UNM General Library (UNMGL), the Health Sciences Center (HSC) Library, and the School of Law Library (LL), representing three administratively distinct organizations. UNMGL is comparable to a non-departmentalized college within the University and is administered by the Dean of Library Services who reports to the Provost and Vice-President for Academic Affairs. HSC reports to the HSC Associate Vice-President for Planning and Development. LL reports to the Dean of the School of Law. The UNM General Library encompasses Zimmerman Library (the University's main library), Centennial Science and Engineering Library, Parish Memorial Library, the Fine Arts Library, the Center for Academic Program Support (CAPS), the Center for Regional Studies (CRS), and the Center for Southwest Research (CSWR).

UNM Peer Institutions

University of Arizona	University of Oklahoma, Norman
University of Arkansas, Fayetteville	University of Oregon
University of Colorado, Boulder	University of South Carolina, Columbia
University of Iowa	University of Tennessee, Knoxville
University of Kansas - Main	University of Texas, Austin
University of Kentucky	University of Utah
University of Missouri, Columbia	University of Virginia - Main
University of Nebraska, Lincoln	University of Washington

Peer institutions are set by the New Mexico Commission on Higher Education, after consultation with UNM, for use in the funding formula and for making salary comparisons. The peers were chosen as institutions with a similar mix of programs and similar size and mission as UNM.
