UNM Facts

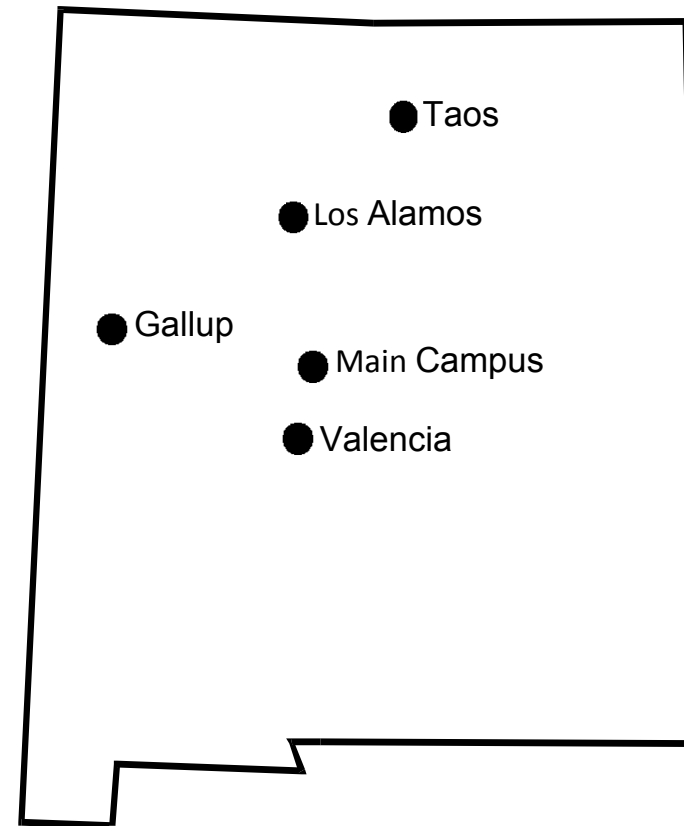

2012-2013

Introduction

This fact book presents data for all UNM campuses. UNM consists of a Main Campus located in Albuquerque, which includes all programs and departments that report to Academic Affairs and the Health Sciences Center. UNM also has four branch campuses, which have a two-year degree mission: UNM-Gallup, UNM-Los Alamos, UNM-Taos, and UNM-Valencia.

Founded in 1889, the University of New Mexico is the state's flagship research institution. UNM's Carnegie Basic Classification is "Research University with Very High Research Activity." As a Hispanic-Serving Institution†, the University represents a cross-section of cultures and backgrounds. UNM research injects millions of dollars into New Mexico's economy, funds new advancements in healthcare, and augments teaching – giving students valuable hands-on training in state-of-the-art laboratories.

In Fall 2012, the campuses of the University of New Mexico served 36,722 students,* employed 3,995 faculty, 6,551 staff, and 5,061 students (an additional 6,116 staff work at University Hospital, 66 at the UNM Foundation, and 268 at the UNM Medical Group); and had a total operating and capital budget of about $2.43 billion. In the previous academic year, UNM awarded 5,647 degrees and certificates. The Division of Continuing Education and Community Services serves more than 30,000 students annually in various non-credit or certificate courses, workshops, and training sessions. Approximately 150,000 community and UNM participants use the Conference Center facility each year.

†The Hispanic Association of Colleges & Universities (HACU) defines HSI as colleges, universities, or systems/districts where total Hispanic enrollment constitutes a minimum of 25% of the total enrollment. *Enrollment includes full-time and part-time students, by campus, at the undergraduate or graduate level (including professional schools) of the institution, or both (i.e., headcount of for-credit students).

New Federal Race & Ethnicity Reporting Rules

Beginning 2011

There are new Federal rules for collecting and reporting race/ethnic data as of Summer 2010. Individuals are now given the option of identifying their ethnicity as Hispanic or Non-Hispanic, and are also given the option of selecting one or more races. For Federal reporting, anyone who selects Hispanic is reported as Hispanic, regardless of any race choices they select. Anyone who selects Non-Hispanic and only one race (e.g., American Indian) is reported as that race, and anyone who selects Non-Hispanic and two or more races is reported as "Two or More".

For example: the American Indian total will include anyone who selected American Indian only. If an individual selected Hispanic and American Indian, they will be reported as Hispanic, and if they selected Non-Hispanic and American Indian and one or more additional race, they will be reported as "Two or More".

International faculty, staff and students are reported separately, rather than in any of the racial or ethnic categories.

These data are not comparable to data from previous years.

Campus Naming Conventions

Beginning with the 2011 version of the UNM Fact Book, a new standardized set of campus descriptors were adopted to provide for better consistency in reporting of the data. The descriptors are as follows:

UNM All Sites and Campuses: Formerly referred to as Total UNM or UNM (HSC & Branches), includes all programs, departments, faculty, and staff that report through any of the areas mentioned below.

Main Campus: Sometimes referred to as the “Albuquerque Campus,” includes all programs and departments that report to Academic Affairs and to the Health Sciences Center administrative areas. Branch Campuses are excluded. This conforms to the National Center for Educational Statics (NCES) Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) terminology.

Academic Affairs: Includes all programs and departments that report through the Provost/Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs administrative areas, including Extended University, Continuing Education, and other sites such as UNM West (Rio Rancho). Branch Campuses and the Health Sciences Center are excluded.

Academic Affairs/Administrative Areas: For data pertaining to faculty and staff, includes those individuals reporting through the administrative areas of the Provost/Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs (as listed above), the Executive Vice President for Administration, and the President’s Office. Branch Campus faculty and staff are excluded.

Health Sciences Center: Includes programs, departments, faculty and staff that report through the Health Sciences Center administrative areas, including the College of Nursing, College of Pharmacy, and School of Medicine. Branch Campuses are excluded.

Branches: Includes all programs, departments, faculty, and staff that report through any of UNM’s four Branch Campuses – UNM-Gallup, UNM-Los Alamos, UNM-Taos, and UNM-Valencia.

²Reflects an academic year, which includes summer, fall, and the following spring semester.

³Transfer students are students who have taken classes at another institution prior to their first enrollment at any UNM campus. These numbers do not reflect students who may take courses at another institution after first enrolling at UNM.

⁴These are students who first enroll at a UNM branch campus and then subsequently enroll exclusively at the Main Campus in a Main Campus degree program. These numbers do not reflect all the students who may start at the Main Campus and who subsequently take courses at one of the branches that they apply to their Main Campus degree.

Degree Programs, Program Accreditation,
Degrees Awarded & Alumni

Degree & Certificate Programs (Main Campus¹)

UNM's Main Campus offers 238 active degree and certificate programs. There are 99 baccalaureate, 75 masters, and 40 doctoral level degree programs. In addition, there are 5 doctoral professional practice programs—in law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, and physical therapy—as well as 4 education specialist certificates (graduate programs beyond the masters level), 10 graduate certificate programs, 5 undergraduate certificate programs, and 1 associate degree program. Many of the degree programs have additional concentrations and options (see the UNM catalog for information on degree concentrations: http://registrar.unm.edu/UNM_Catalog/index.html).

The University offers an Evening and Weekend Degree Program (EWDP) in which nearly 40 majors and minors are available, and core courses are offered in a number of additional degree programs. About 1,000 classes are offered each semester after 4:00 p.m. or on weekends. Approximately 12,000 non-traditional, working students that attend UNM at night each semester. The following list of degree programs are marked with an "*" if the entire program is available in the EWDP and with a "+" if several core courses in a program are offered through EWDP.

During AY 2012-2013 UNM offered 981 sections online. UNM's main campus offers approximately 17 online degree completion programs. During AY 2012-2013 there were approximately 26,517 duplicated enrollments in online sections. The following list of degree programs are marked with an "^" if the program is designated as an online degree program as reported to the Higher Learning Commission (where 50% or more of the courses within the program can be taken online). In addition to online offerings, UNM supports a variety of bachelor and graduate degree programs through face-to-face and interactive television (ITV) delivery at 7 locations around the state and offers approximately 55 different independent study through correspondence courses.

Key for symbols:

- * entire degree program is available through EDWP
- + several core courses in a degree program are offered through EWDP

²As of October 31 of each year.

³Faculty with temporary appointments include Temporary Adjuncts and retired faculty hired back to teach one or two courses.

⁴With further research, the large numbers of Non-Credit Instructors may be partly due to a non-active status for some instructors who remain in the Banner system.

In the Banner system Non-Credit Instructors are now able to be identified separately from Temporary Faculty.

⁵Post-Doctoral Fellows are hired on temporary appointments, primarily to conduct research in externally funded projects.

List of UNM Peer Institutions

Peer institutions are selected as a means to benchmark university performance against a set of similar institutions. The University's current peer list was originally developed over two decades ago by the predecessor of the Higher Education Department (HED). With the HED schools serving as the foundation, an extensive review of institutions was conducted with regard to institution type, selectivity, size, demographics, and location among other variables. Broad, institution-level data were examined for numerous potential peer institutions, then discussed and reviewed by the university community. The multi-faceted peer listing now includes schools in the southwest region of the United States and Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSI) that the University of New Mexico competes with in the recruitment of faculty, staff and students.
